IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING A CHANGE IN YOUR TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE PROVIDER

Dear Valued Customer:

Commencing on July 31, 2007, the provider of your private line telecommunications services will change from WestCom Corporation to IPC Network Services, Inc. As you may know, WestCom Corporation and its subsidiaries were acquired by IPC in May of this year. This notice is being sent in compliance with the rules of the Federal Communications Commission and your state relating to a change in a subscriber's authorized telecommunications carrier.

As a customer of IPC, you will continue to receive all of the features, terms and conditions of service and current rates that you enjoy today. Notice of any future changes in rates, terms and conditions of service will be provided to you in writing according to the terms of your agreement, or as otherwise provided by law. IPC has over 15 years experience delivering voice and data communications and currently provides these services in over 25 states today. Using state of the art equipment and knowledgeable employees, IPC provides businesses with reliable, customized communications solutions and personal customer service.

As always, you may choose another carrier for your services at any time, subject to any termination restrictions in your current contract. However, we would like to emphasize that you will be treated as a valued customer of IPC. Unless you choose another carrier by the date specified above (subject to the terms of your contract), you will automatically become an IPC customer on that date. You do not need to take any action to be transferred to IPC, and IPC will pay any change charges associated within transferring your account to it.

Please also know that IPC will work to resolve any complaints you may have against WestCom that have not been resolved by the time your account is transferred.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact an IPC representative. Our toll-free number is (888) 286-2343.

We look forward to serving you.
